

28th Annual Edward Teller Lecture & Banquet

October 16, 2019

USCA Convocation Center

Aiken SC

2019 Teller Lecturer

Michael Shellenberger,

Founder & President of Environmental Progress

Michael is considered one of the world's leading pro-nuclear environmentalists. He is a leading energy, security, and environmental expert. He advises policymakers around the world, including in the U.S., Japan, Taiwan, South Korea, the Philippines, Australia, United Kingdom, the Netherlands, and Belgium. He is co-founder of Breakthrough Institute, where he was president from 2003 - 2015, and served as an advisor to MIT's "Future of Nuclear Energy" task force.

Michael is a regular contributor to Forbes, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, and The Washington Post. His TED talks — "How Fear of Nuclear Hurts the Environment," "Why I Changed My Mind About Nuclear Power" and "Why Renewables Can't Save the Planet" — have been viewed over three million times.

His research and writing have appeared in The Harvard Law and Policy Review, Democracy Journal, Scientific American, Nature Energy, PLOS Biology, The New Republic, and cited by the New York Times, Slate, USA Today, Washington Post, New York Daily News, The New Republic.

Tickets Required

RSVP By October 2nd

Reception starts at 6pm

- Private Speaker Reception-Invite Only
- Cash Bar- included with ticket

Dinner starts at 7pm

Cost: $50 per person ($65 if attending Private Reception)

Benefactor and Member+ CNTA Members receive one complementary ticket to private reception

Buy online at: cntaware.org/teller/ or email CNTA.

For Table Sponsorship information contact CNTA.

Business Attire

CONTACT CNTA

CNTA@bellsouth.net; (803) 649-3456
www.cntaware.org

1204 Whiskey Rd. Suite B
Aiken SC 29803

CNTA is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization; ID #57-0953103